

Queen Street

Pleasant Street

In 1848 John Andrew, with son James was living in Queen Street. At the same time Francis Bennallack with his daughter Mary Jane, had moved to Pleasant Street. This is probably how James and Mary met one another.